

Bibi Akima Bacchus is a distinguished Guyanese journalist with over eight years of experience shaping the media landscape.

Since July 2017, she has built a remarkable career marked by integrity, professionalism, and a passion for storytelling.

For the past four years, Bibi has led as the Editor-in-Chief of SafeTV Channel 2's Headline News Update, driving the newsroom's editorial direction and consistently delivering impactful news coverage.

A proud graduate of the University of Guyana, Bibi earned her Bachelor's Degree with Distinction in Communication Studies, an accomplishment recognised by the prestigious Shirley Alma and Paulette Paul Memorial Award for Best Graduating Student, a testament to her academic excellence and dedication.

In addition to her journalism expertise, Bibi holds a Diploma in Environment Health and Safety Management and is currently pursuing a Commonwealth Master's Degree in Public Administration (MPA), reflecting her commitment to personal growth and public service.

As the confident and compelling face of SafeTV Channel 2's evening news, Bibi commands the screen, delivering every broadcast with professionalism, clarity, and a passion that resonates deeply with viewers across Guyana.